This text adapts part of a traditional Irish prayer associated with St. Patrick (see also no. 6). Such a prayer for protection is known as a lorica, from a Latin word for "breastplate" or "armor." It is set to a Gaelic melody that gained wide popularity in the 1970s.

Assurance of Pardon:

Unison Reading

In obedience to the Lord, I have confessed my failings and I have requested mercy and forgiveness. By faith in God's Holy Word and through the sacrifice of Jesus my Savior, I accept my pardon and the assurance of His loving grace. In Jesus Name. Amen.

Sharing of Joys and Concerns

Unison Prayer concluding with the Lord's Prayer
Gracious Savior, we appreciate this time that we can share our joys and concerns. You have heard our joys for which we have given thanks and you have accepted our concerns because your word promises that our petitions are welcome. In faith we know that you are the answer and that your Holy Spirit will bring us love and healing. Your faithfulness is why we continuously pray ... Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
