Prelude/Welcome/Announcements

*Call to Worship: (From Psalm 15)

O Lord, who may abide in your tent?

Who may dwell on your holy hill?

Those who walk blamelessly and do what is right,
who speak the truth from their heart.

Those whose tongue utters no slander,
who do no wrong to a neighbor, and cast no slur on others.

Those who despise what is wicked,
but honor the fear of the Lord.

They will stand by their oath even when it hurts.

They will lend to the poor without interest,
and never take a bribe against the innocent.

Those who do these things shall never be moved!

Lead us, O Lord, to dwell in your presence forevermore!

*Hymn “Open the Eyes of My Heart” #452

Opening Prayer

Prayer of Confession Unison Reading
Forgive us, Lord, when we say we follow Jesus but we have not learned to carry our cross. We want Jesus to improve our lives the way the world sees them as better: richer, healthier, safer.
Yet Jesus was not rich, and the authorities killed him because they saw him as a threat. We’ve forgotten the cross was how they persecuted the man who did not play by the rules of a violent world. We’ve ignored that the cross was injustice done to the One who was innocent before God, but dangerous to those who merely wanted to keep their religious and political power.

We wear the symbol on our necks and cars and the walls of our homes, but don't expect God to call us to surrender everything to stand for love and goodness, like Jesus did. Help us, O Lord, understand the call to carry our own cross.

Time of Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon:

When Christ died for us, he became the only necessary sacrifice for the forgiveness of our sins. Through the grace of the Savior we need only to confess our sin and turn towards what is good.

Friends, believe the Good News! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God!
